Press Release:

The epic, lit, exciting and bigger & better 2nd Mzansi Kwaito & House Music Awards took place on the 25th November 2017 at Soweto Kliptown in Walter Sisulu Square.

The event was attended by the Kwaito & House veterans and government dignitaries including the MEC Faith Mazibuko who also presented 2 life time achievements to Spikiri “The Don Father” Mandla Mofokeng and DJ Ganyani.

The 2nd MKHMA annual event was hosted by our well known Kwaito artists which are Chomie and Skhokho. The exciting night had great performances, the likes of Heavy K, Mgarimbe, Pitch Black Afro, Spikiri, DJ Zino and lots of upcoming artists.

“One of the upcoming artists who performed and shook the crowd was Mali Sithole who performed 2 Kwaito House songs, Ngeke Kulunge and Sibizelwe, and got himself a deal with Universal Music.

The dress code of the night was glamour and All Star or any other sneakers. The artists, VIP’s and fans looked beautiful as most of them stuck to the theme. The unique part of the event was the 150 meters long red carpet that was from Soweto Hotel to Walter Sisulu Square.

“The awards presenters were presented by women like Margaret Motsega, Khanyo Maphumulo, Soweto Hotel Management Samke Malevu and Busi, Mercy Pakela, MEC Faith Mazibuko, and the MKHMA CEO Perfecta Khumalo.

“We had to use women to present awards as you all know that Kwaito & House is male dominated “says the MKHMA CEO/Founder Perfecta Khumalo.

Perfecta Khumalo also gave the speech on the night, presenting the MKHMA vision and values. She also requested support from business people and government in terms of funding and partnerships. She thanked all the MKHMA partners, Soweto Hotel, Soweto Gold and especially 802Media for world class production.

The MKHMA are to honor the upcoming artists and legends who have been flying the flag high of these genres. There were 17 categories altogether and the winners were voted by the public.
